SHOOTING AFFRAY .- NOBODY HURT .- There was rather an amusing shooting affair yesterday, that resulted like the battle of Fort Sumter, in "nobody hurt" Two men got into an altercation at the stable of Mr. Landis, on Maryland street-one a double fisted fellow and the other a nervous little man that the big fellow might have stowed away in his overcout pocket and felt but slight encumbrance from the weight. The little fellow could not stand the gasconade of the big ! one, and finally, as the giant made a demonstration towards him, drew a diminutive revolver and commenced firing right and left, up and down, and every way but at his adversary. One shot took effect in the ground near his own big toe, another over his head, and two others on the casings of the doorway, while the fifth went-God knows where. Bang, bang, bang, went the shots in rapid succession; the proprietor held up his hands in holy horror, the big man, who was to have been shot, looked on in amazement at the hereby authorized to continue paying the bounty audacity of the plucky little one, and the bystanders, when they found they were not killed, laughed orders, and also the month's pay in advance. outright. The little man e-caped on horseback, riding like John Gilpin, before the police arrived, and thus the shooting affair ended.

The postoffice at Millersville has been removed to Jones's Switch, one mile and a half west, on the Peru railroad.

A dispatch from Washington on Sunday gives the names of the following Indiana officers killed and wounded in the late battles near Ma-Major May, killed; Capt. John Lindley, Lieuts. Samuel Meredith, Cook, Newman, Jack, Finney

Samuel Conor, badly wounded. They were all members of the 19th. A special to the Cincinnati Gazette vesterday stated that Col. Sol Meredith was wounded, bur we presume it is a mistake as a dispatch from Mr. Dennis names the Colonel as behaving gloriously and makes no mention of his being wounded.

THE DEATH OF COL. TOPPING .- Again has an Impressive warning come to teach us that that in the midst of life we are in death. Col. Topping of the 71st regiment was killed in the recent battle at Richmond, Kentucky, while in the discharge of his duties as commander of that regiment. The announcement of this event has caused the deepest sorrow in this city. Two weeks since he was here mingling with our citizens in the vigor and prime of his life. But now he is dead. How sad the thought. Another dear sacrifice for the Union and the life of the nation. No words are adequate to pronounce his eulogy. There is feeling deeper than language can penetrate - Terre Haute Express.

BEEF CATTLE. The market this week has been a good one for the drover; the prices being higher and the stock inferior.

The sales on Monday included fully five sixths of the offerings, and all were sold by noon of today.
